www.MrGrowly.com

Mr. Growly is a 3-piece Guitar/Bass/Drums combo from San Diego, CA. Original instrumental rock, with a nod to surf music and early 1950's guitar pioneers.

Dave Rodway (Drums) cut his drumming teeth in the clubs of NYC. Touring, recording and performing in the U.S. and Europe, he landed in So Cal in 2006, where the journey continues.

David Raichel (Bass) hails from Los Angeles and has been playing bass and performing in and around Southern California for the better part of 25 years.

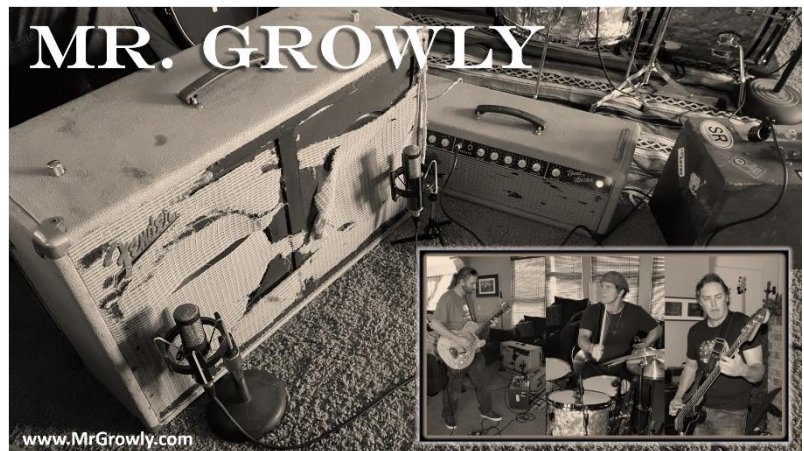

Rick Wilkinson (Guitar) has been playing, recording, touring, and making his own musical gear since he was 16. He's fronted punk, blues, and surf bands, including two of So Cal's most successful instrumental surf bands, Surf Report and CHUM.

Mr. Growly writes grooving, heavy original tunes that are mesmerizing and exciting, with a nod to the pre-rockabilly, guitar-based roots of early rock and roll.
